

Download Do You Need A Lawyer

To become a lawyer through the traditional route, you'll first need to complete a qualifying law degree (LLB) at university, or study another subject at undergraduate level then take the one-year GDL conversion course. At this point the pathways for aspiring solicitors and barristers diverge. If...Determining the Need for Legal Assistance. Also, learn about the role of a lawyer and how he or she may be able to assist you with legal issues involving criminal law, family law, personal injury law, disability law and other practice areas.If you are being sued and the consequences of a loss may result in the loss of a good deal of money or property, you need a lawyer. Again, the other side has a lawyer, so you need to get one too. Most of these things are settled out of court, but you want an experienced negotiator on your side.1. The Law is Complicated. If you're not a lawyer you probably have no business acting like one in certain instances. Even experienced lawyers typically do not represent themselves in court. Also, attorneys tend to specialize in one or more legal practice areas, such as criminal defense or tax law.