

Download Documents On Canadian External Relations

The External Relations team, advances the strategic vision and academic mission of the University and is responsible for development activities, alumni affairs, government relations, marketing, communications, media relations and language services. Resources for the Study of International Relations and Foreign Policy. Welcome to the CPRS Job Board! Here, you can find the latest opportunities from Canadian employers or post an opening of your own to recruit the best talent from across the country. The Ministry of External Affairs of India (MEA), also known as the Foreign Ministry, is the government agency responsible for the conduct of foreign relations of India.