

Download Fire On The Hangar Deck

The FabriLock Smoke Containment System is the perfect solution for aircraft hangars requiring draft curtains. Companies, organizations, and The United States Military have utilized FabriLock all over the country. The 1966 USS Oriskany Fire was a major fire that broke out aboard the Essex-class aircraft carrier USS Oriskany on the morning of 26 October 1966. On 29 July 1967, a fire broke out on board the aircraft carrier USS Forrestal after an electrical anomaly caused a Zuni rocket on a F-4B Phantom to fire, striking an external fuel tank of an A-4 Skyhawk. Fire. Keeping areas around electrical work and electrical equipment clean, uncluttered and free of all unnecessary flammable substances can greatly reduce the chances of a fire.