Cleopatra gave birth to Ptolemy XV Caesarion on 23 June 47 BC. A decree in demotic (a shorthand version of hieroglyphs) was set up in the Serapeum at Saqqara and his lineage proclaimed on monuments across Egypt (including a famous scene in the Temple of Dendera. Caesar seems to have been very proud that he had finally had a son. Nebuchadnezzar takes revenge (Book of Judith 1-7:32) There is a war between two ancient kings, Nebuchadnezzar and Arphaxad – see Bad Men in the Bible: Nebuchadnezzar for information about Babylon and its king.. At the start of this war Nebuchadnezzar orders all the city states in surrounding kingdoms to send him a levy of soldiers, but they flout his command.
