

Download How On Earth Do We Recycle Paper

Recycling paper conserves natural resources, saves energy, reduces greenhouse gas emissions, and keeps landfill space free for other types of trash that can't be recycled. Recycling one ton of paper can save 17 trees, 7,000 gallons of water, 380 gallons of oil,...Simple Steps to Recycle Your Own Paper. Paper recycled by hand works well for making cards and gifts. Many of us throw paper in our recycling bins without too much thought, but believe it or not, people have been making paper for 2000 years. In the U.S., we've been recycling it for more than 100 years. Get this from a library! How on earth do we recycle paper?. [Helen Jill Fletcher; Seli Groves; Art Seiden] -- Discusses how paper is produced and how it is recycled. Presents crafts projects using paper discards. In the U.S., we recycle a lot of paper; it accounts for half of the recyclables collected per year, and our paper recycling rate is 63 percent. However, paper still makes up 33 percent of our annual garbage output, so we have a long way to go. Paper Recycling Tips. Avoid getting paper wet, as this significantly reduces the recycling market.