Is Jesus an incarnation of God by the statement of John 1:14—"So the Word became flesh..."? At the institution of the Lord's Evening Meal, Jesus offered the unfermented bread to the 11 faithful apostles, saying: "This means my body which is to be given in your behalf." (Lu 22:19) The apostle... While the denial of the incarnation is certainly not the only reason why Jehovah's Witnesses believe and practice as they do, I believe it is a major factor, a factor rooted in enlightenment American religion at the time the Jehovah's Witnesses were founded. Jehovah's Witnesses and the Incarnation The doctrine of the Incarnation of Christ is the belief that the second person in the Godhead, also known as the Son or the Logos (Word), "became flesh" when he was miraculously conceived in the womb of the Virgin Mary. In the Incarnation, the divine nature of the Son was perfectly united with Jehovah's Beloved Incarnation.
