It was the war between American colonists and their home country England (at the time) that lasted from 1775 through 1783. The colonists were mad about all the taxes they had been given. The revolutionary ... Digital Textbook Student Edition See all. Unit 1. Unit 2 "Bread and Roses" is a political slogan as well as the name of an associated poem and song. It originated from a speech given by Helen Todd; a line in that speech about "bread for all, and roses too" inspired the title of the poem Bread and Roses by James Oppenheim. The poem was first published in The American Magazine in December 1911, with ...
